TENNESSEE RATIFIES WOMAN SUFFRAGE

But Opponents Have Chance To Reconsider Vote Thro Coup of Anti Leader

(By Associated Press) Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 18.—Tennessee today became the 36th state to ratify the federal woman suffrage amendment, the constitutional change thus becoming effective in time for 17,000,000 women of the country, to vote in the Presidential election in November unless the Lower House of the Tennessee assembly rescinds its action today in adopting the ratification resolution by 49 to 47.

Speaker Walker, leader of the anti-suffragists, however, put its opponents in a position to demand a reconsideration by changing his vote from nay to aye and moving to reconsider.

The House then adjourned when Walker's motion will have the right of way. The Senate ratified the amendment Friday.

JOINT OPERATORS MAY BE DISRUPTED

(By Associated Press) Cleveland, Ohio, August 18.—A division of bituminous coal operators of the central competitive district, comprising Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and western Pennsylvania, with separate bargaining for miners of each state, is probable, it was learned after today's meeting. Two subcommittees were appointed by a joint scale committee, which reported a disagreement to the joint committee in the existing deadlock on the miners' request for an adjustment of alleged inequalities in the recent award of President Wilson's coal commission.

"Great differences exist among operators of the four states," said Secretary-Treasurer Green of the United Mine Workers, "which may result in a disruption of the joint wage movement in force in the central competitive field."

UNCLE SAM LOOKING INTO COAL SITUATION

Washington, August 18.—Active steps to limit the prices charged consumers for coal in various parts of the country will be begun shortly by the Department of Justice, it was said last night by officials of the department.

Reports from the Federal Trade Commission covering the costs of production and distribution of coal are being studied by experts of the department, it was stated, and data being compiled upon which to base instructions to district attorneys governing the prosecution of exorbitant price coal case. No attempt will be made to fix a price on coal, it was said, as the attorney general can act only on the Lever act, but it was pointed out that by prosecution far violations of the law the price of coal can be kept within reasonable bounds.

REWEDS AFTER 8-YEAR HUNT FOR LOST MATE

Winchester, Ky., Aug. 18.—The marriage of Mrs. J. C. Richardson, formerly of Kentucky, to J. W. Walker, of Jacksonville, Fla., recalls the strange disappearance of her former husband, J. Clarence Richardson, who vanished eight ago from their home in Mt. Sterling, Ky.

When Mr. Richardson, a representative of the National Cash Register Company, disappeared his wife began a nation-wide search. It was believed he met with foul play. It was reported that a man answering his description had been killed in Indiana, but when the body was examined the report proved untrue. During the succeeding years Mrs. Richardson gradually abandoned the hope that her husband was still alive.

The marriage of Mr. Walker who is connected with the Seaboard Airline Railroad Company, is the culmination of a romance begun three years ago. The bride is a sister of Mr. T. C. Henry, of this city. She has one child, 12 years old.

Blair Declared Winner

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 18.—Official results for the republican nomination for Congress in the Ninth district, show W. G. Blair, of West Liberty, won over W. S. Yazell, of Mason county, by 199.

APPENDIX BURST BUT BOY RECOVERS

Last week while visiting relatives in Lexington, John Goodloe, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Goodloe of White's Station, suffered an acute attack of appendicitis. The lad was rushed to the St. Joseph's hospital there where it was decided an operation was necessary immediately. Upon examination, it was found the appendix had burst, an extraordinary fact connected with such cases. However, the operation was concluded by Dr. David Barrow who is of the opinion that unless complications arise, recovery will follow. The parents of the little fellow, who is well and popularly known in Richmond, are with their son, who, according to the attending physicians and surgeons, will doubtless survive one of the most unusual experiences known to the medical and surgical professions.

ROBERT VANDEVER NAMED FOR ANNAPOLIS

A dispatch to the Louisville Post from Washington says that Congressman King Swope has recommended Robert Vandever, of Richmond, for appointment to the Naval Academy at Annapolis. Young Vandever is 18 years of age and is popular with all who know him. He is a graduate of Caldwell High School, and took high rank in his studies. His many friends are confident that he will enter the great naval training school with flying colors.

Young Vandever is a son of D. W. Vandever, who is the most prominent member of the Socialist party in the Eighth congressional district. Mr. Vandever has been the Socialist candidate for congress in the Eighth district a time or two, and he ran for Mayor of Richmond on the Socialist ticket at the last municipal election.

WORK MAY DELAY OPENING OF SCHOOL

Work is progressing on the improvement being made at Madison High School, and an effort is being made to complete this in order to admit of the opening of school the first of the month. There is a question whether this can be accomplished. Contractors are giving the work close attention and a good force of workmen is being employed.

The excavation work is being accomplished in a very satisfactory manner and that above the ground; it is believed, will be completed within the allotted time, or very soon afterward, which may necessitate the failure to open the institution until the second week in September. Superintendent Payne stated that since the work was being gotten way in such short time, he was of the opinion that the contracts might be filled on time.

The Shawd of Rosalie Byrnes, the latest picture starring Elaine Hammerstein, will be seen at the local theaters today. In this picture she plays two parts, one that of a charming, womanly heroine, the sort that the public has come to feel no one can portray quite so well as Miss Hammerstein, and the other, an unscrupulous and flashy actress.

FUNERAL OF CHAPMAN

(By Associated Press) Cleveland, O., Aug. 18.—The body of Shortstop Ray Chapman, who died yesterday as the result of a fractured skull received in Monday's game between New and Cleveland, arrived here today. Hundreds of fans met the train. The funeral date is uncertain, but will be conducted either Friday or Saturday.

May Hold Americans

(By Associated Press) Tokyo, Japan, Aug. 18.—Press advices from Seoul, Korea, allege widespread Korean plots to hold a party of American congressmen at present visiting the Far East, for the purpose of creating complications between Japan and America. Even Koreans were arrested.

J. A. KANATZAR SHIPPING FINE HOUNDS TO THE EAST

J. L. Kanatzar, has been shipping some fine young hounds recently, and the demand for Madison county's famous brand continues. One of the dogs, a young male, trained to run, was sent to Mississippi, and a number of puppies have been sent from the kennels to New Jersey, where their new owner will start the work of training them at once, he writes, since he wants the Kentucky youngsters to take part in a number of contests to be pulled off in the east next year. They are said to have been some of the most promising young dogs ever produced here.

THE DANIEL FREDERICK FUNERAL HERE TUESDAY

The funeral of Daniel Frederick, 75, who died at the home of William Wilder, at Stanford, after a brief illness, took place at the Richmond cemetery Tuesday afternoon upon the arrival of the body from Stanford, and services which were conducted by representatives of the Richmond Masonic Lodge, were attended by a large number who knew the deceased during his residence here several years ago. Mr. Frederick came to Richmond several years ago and spent some time here and in Madison county, where he is well remembered by many of the older residents. Later he went to the Masonic home, where he resided for about a period of about three years. He went to the Wilder home just a few days prior to his demise. He is survived by a niece, Miss Lizzie Goodlott, and nephews, Silas and Sam Isaac.

PISTOL DUEL: 1 KILLED

Bardstown, Ky., August 16.—Alexander Baker was killed and Theo Lytle was dangerously wounded in a pistol duel Sunday night. The duel took place on a coal car in the Manchester depot.

The men had quarreled over the charge that Mills had cut up the leather belt of a saw mill belonging to Lytle. Spectators say that Mills approached and opened fire shooting Lytle through the thigh. He died occurring within a few minutes.

Lytle belongs to a prominent Clay county family and is extensively interested in coal and timber.

The Madison County Medical Society will meet in the county judge's office on Thursday evening at 7:30. The program follows:

LESLIE HAS LOTS OF CATTLE

Leslie county is overstocked with all kinds of cattle. Cattle buyers would be very welcome at the this time, as there has not been any cattle bought up for many a day. There are many cows for sale.

More Paint Being Applied

County Clerk Jennings Maupin is preparing to "clean house" at his office after the painters have finished. The work of redecorating the interior of this and the rear corridors will mark the finish of this work at the building for this year, although it is claimed the entire outside will receive a coat of paint next year.

MADISON BURLEY GROWERS ACTIVE

Delegation Off For Lexington To Attend Big Meeting—Another Here Saturday

What is known as the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association, comprising producers of Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio and West Virginia, is expected to be the outcome of the big meeting at Lexington Wednesday where representatives of a large part of the territory will be present, having been called for the purpose of looking after the future interests of tobacco.

Constitution and by-laws will be drafted and this will form a basis upon which the several thousand members are expected to operate in the future. Just what decision, if any, regarding the crop for 1921 will be taken at the meeting is not known at this time, for this will be one of the important features of the meeting. It is known some favor the idea and others another. Kentucky is said to be the center of the tobacco raising territory, and great interest is being manifested in the operators here. Madison county is one of the most extensive producers and will have a number of delegates at the meeting. That the cut-out for 1921 is objected to, and will be voted against, there is no question. This decision was rendered by vote at the first meeting held here last Saturday. There is a temporary organization at Lexington. There will be a meeting of the Madison growers in Richmond at the court house on next Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, and it is expected a detailed report of the Lexington meeting, together with the plans, will be made to the growers here. Then, it is believed, action will be taken looking towards the perfection of an organization, which is favored by many. It is said that more than 50,000 growers are eligible to membership in the big organization, but many are of the opinion that while Madison county will doubtless affiliate with the other counties, as well as the organization, there will be independent actions taken here for the benefit of the growers.

Besides Green Clay, Dr. G. G. Perry, Waller Bennett and N. B. Deathrage, appointed delegates, a number of other Madison county growers are in attendance.

BEND

Splendid rains and the corn in the lowlands is looking fine. The rains have changed the appearance of tobacco and all wheat is threshed.

Rev. W. I. Peel will begin a protracted meeting at the Bend school house Tuesday, August 24.

Miss Ada Smyth is getting along with her school very well. There are 42 in the district and 38 enrolled. Supt. B. F. Edwards and Prof. Aiken visited the school last week. They say it is one of the best in the rural districts.

Road work is the order of the day back in the isolated districts away from the pikes.

Jesse Dennis and his uncle, John Warner, are visiting in Louisville and Indiana this week.

Wayne Smyth and Elahon Richardson went to Berea Saturday on business.

James D. Congleton, who recently moved to Indiana, writes he is well pleased, have good crops and plenty of fruit.

The watermelons are shining on the vine. Will begin marketing them this week.

There is quite a contrast between a front porch campaign and one touring the country. Most people like to see the other man before voting.

EMBARKS IN BUSINESS

W. H. Wilcox, who has been superintendent of a local laundry for some time, has gone to Jackson, where he contemplates the starting of a laundry within a short time. He'll move his family there later, according to present plans. Mr. Wilcox is recognized as a man of extensive experience in this business, having come to Richmond to assemble and install a plant here, and his value as a laundryman being recognized, he has been "held" here, but has decided to go into business for himself. He is said to be one of the most thoroughly experienced men in this line in the country, and his popularity follows him there. He is assured of a good business, and his patronage will doubtless be extensive and satisfactory.

TEVIS HUGUELY IN BIG TAX DRIVE

Says Many Delinquents Were Caught Here But No Evidence of Dishonesty Here

D. Tevis Hugueley, in charge of the Middlesboro internal revenue division, was in Richmond Wednesday, having just concluded working in the big special excise and miscellaneous tax drive which was put on by revenue men all over the state during the past 60 days. Richmond business men who forgot to pay Uncle Sam's license tax had a visit from Mr. Hugueley at the beginning of the drive and had to "cough up." Mr. Hugueley said he found no evidence of dishonesty on the part of any Richmond businessman. In many places the evidence showed wholesale stealing. Mr. Hugueley said that in Richmond the mistakes were principally clerical or errors in calculation.

Kentucky outranked the entire United States in the campaign against tax evaders ordered by the government three months ago. According to figures in the hands of federal authorities, Kentucky shows $51,257.63, embracing 2,260 tax evaders. These are the lowest figures in the country for a state district.

The only district which gave a lower total than Kentucky was an eastern district and did not embrace an entire state as does Kentucky.

Washington authorities praised Collector Elwood Hamilton highly.

Three months ago the department at Washington sent out instructions to each of the 64 districts in the United States, announcing the drive and at the same time placed 171 special tax men, who visited all of the large cities in the work. It was expected that the loss to the government would approximate $1,000,000. The total figures of the country have not been given out at Washington. According to Mr. Hamilton the books of every merchant in Kentucky were audited by the special tax men.

"RED" WEAVER LOSES FINGER IN ACCIDENT

Danville, Ky., August 18.—James ("Red") Weaver, center on Centre College team for the past three seasons, Camp's all-American selection last year, had the small finger on his left hand amputated here at a local hospital. Weaver, who has been working here for several days, had the member injured the latter part of June in the Texas oil fields. When set the finger failed to heal properly and specialists advised amputation. Doctors say it will not handicap him playing this year. Weaver established a world's record last season by kicking 46 consecutive goals from touch downs.

NO ONE MET PRODIGAL

AFTER MORE THAN 40 YEARS

Whitesburg, Ky., August 18.—Forty years ago Richard Riley Adams, then a young man, disappeared from his home at Bottom fork creek near Mayking. No one heard from him and foul play was suspected. For many years no tidings came to relatives. At length he wrote back from a far western state. Soon letters ceased. Adams was as silent thereafter as the tomb. The other night he alighted from an L. & N. passenger train at Whitesburg—his old home town, but he was grizzled and gray. No one knew him.

POLICE STATION SAFE ROBBED

Los Angeles, Cal., August 18.—The safe in Police Judge Ray L. Chesbro's courtroom in the central police station, was robbed of approximately $25,000, it was discovered yesterday when court opened. The robbers overlooked more than $17,000. The court room is directly over the detective bureau, where seven detectives and about 20 policemen were on duty. The safe door and mechanism were found intact, but an inner box was smashed.

To Resume Highway Work

Work on the Dixie Highway south of Berea, stopped owing to the explosion which resulted in the death of Wm. Tatum some time ago, has been investigated and will be resumed perhaps this week. There will be a successor chosen for the unfortunate man and the work will be started soon since it is the intention of the state to include this highway in the list to be taken over for permanent maintenance.

A marriage license was secured on Tuesday at the office of County Clerk Jennings Maupin by Clarence Fritz, 21, and Nannie McLaughlin, 21, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McLaughlin of Berea.

Parade To Be Feature

A parade of the children of the county schools and in all probability the schools of the city of Richmond, will be a feature of the school day carnival to be held here later. The plans are being mapped out and while the date has not been set, it is expected to be the most auspicious gathering of school children of the country ever recorded.

MASONS GET $800,000 IN NEW HOME DRIVE

G. Allison Holland, chairman of the state committee which is engaged in raising the $10,000,000 fund for the rehabilitation of the Masonic widows' and orphans' home in Louisville, announced Tuesday that this fund had reached $800,000 and subscriptions are coming in rapidly, indicating the entire fund is likely to be completed by the end of the year.

Accompanied by Grand Master H. S. McElroy, of Lebanon, and other state grand lodge officers, Chairman Holland will go to Carlisle today to participate in the centennial celebration of the establishment of the Masonic order in Nicholas county, which is to be observed with a big picnic, to which Masons from all over Central and Northern Kentucky have been invited. Addresses will be delivered by Messrs. McElroy and Holland and other grand lodge officers.

It was announced that the west bank of the Vistula has been cleared of the Bolshevik cavalry, detachments of which had crossed the river to the northwest of Plack. The Soviet horsemen in this move were making an effort to sever Warsaw's remaining line of

FOR COUNTY JAILER:

An Independent Newspaper

The New York Evening Post, New York's most independent newspaper, has come out for Cox and Roosevelt. It offers a reason for its action that should appeal to every independent voter. It says:

"The paramount issue in the presidential campaign is the 'treaty of peace and the League of Nations with safeguarding reservations. Shall the United States keep faith with her partners in the war? Shall America join with them in the only honorable and effective way of making peace with Germany? Shall America enter heart and soul upon the work of maintaining the peace of the world as she did upon the task of winning the war?"

"To these questions Governor Cox has answered 'yes' and Senator Harding has answered 'no.'

"If the Evening Post, during the week that has elapsed since Governor Cox's speech of acceptance, has held in abeyance its declaration of choice between the two candidates, the reason was not that we were in doubt concerning Governor Cox's affirmative stand on the treaty and league. We waited to see whether or not Senator Harding would hold fast to his policy of negation.

"Senator Harding has maintained his 'no' to the question of America's honor, duty and ultimate best interests. The issue is thus joined closely.

"The Evening Post, believing that it speaks for a great mass of independent American citizenship, pledges its hearty support to the democratic nominees, in whom it sees embodied the highest aims and ideals of the American citizens."

INVESTIGATION ON IN CALDWELL CASE

Since his return to Mt. Sterling the man giving his name as R. C. Westfall, arrested in Richmond where he was arrested after some pecuniary transactions in Mt. Sterling, has been making some very conflicting statements and the police there, as well as those in Richmond, believe they have a very shrewd and experienced criminal to deal with. After having bought a drove of cattle in the vicinity of Mt. Sterling, for which he presented what is said to be a "cold" check for more than $5,000 in a bank there, he disposed of some of the cattle to Eldridge Wagers, of Richmond; then proceeded to this city, presumably to secure cash on the check, when apprehended. He had not turned over any real money and it developed that he had no money in the bank at Portsmouth, Ohio, upon which the check tendered at Mt. Sterling had been cashed. He is awaiting a hearing pending further investigation of the case, which is now being made.

Wins Distinction By Its Better Qualities

The Cleveland Six has won a place of distinction among light cars because of its better qualities. Designed for every-day service on every kind of roadway, it is sturdily built for endurance. It seeks no glory in speed contests, but earns praise for its performance in doing well all that its thousands of owners expect of a good car.

The exclusive Cleveland Six motor, of the overhead valve type, quiet and responsive in an unusual degree, is alive with power. Power sufficient to give all the speed that any thoughtful driver would ever want to use and to take the loaded car on high up long climbing roadways.

FEEL PRETTY SAFE HERE

While there is extensive talk of "wildfire" in many localities doing great damage to tobacco, it is reported not to be spreading with any great rapidity in Madison county and many farmers expect a good crop this year. Some of the air of the belief that there is more talk than "wildfire," since local producers have made trips throughout this and other counties with the result that while there is some of the disease prevailing in certain localities the loss will not be so great.

SUMMER IRONING

Summer is the season when the housewife looks forward with dread to the week's ironing. It has always meant hours of a very hot kitchen, changing irons continually on a hot stove that seems as hot as a blast furnace. If this respects the electric iron is one of the greatest comforts the housewife can have.

During the winter the housewife doesn't mind the heat of the stove in the room where she is ironing, but when summer comes and every breath of air is hot enough any way, she finds it most uncomfortable to stand over a hot stove any more than is absolutely necessary. When the electric iron first came into use electricity was available only in the city, and for a long time the electric iron has been a common article in every city home. But in the last few years the small electric light and power plant for the farm has been developed to a high standard of efficiency and dependability, and the many home uses for electricity are now at the service of the farmer and his whole family. So the farmwife of today "meets the hot weather with the knowledge that ironing day no longer holds the terror it used to. She attaches the cord of her electric iron to a wall socket and in a minute or two she has an iron as hot as she wants. There's no watching the fire in the stove; there's no changing of irons every few minutes; all the heat goes where it belongs, to the bottom of the iron. There's a great saving in time, efficiency and comfort.

Of course the providing of current for an iron is just one of the services rendered to the farm home by the electric plant. In addition there's light of the brightest and cleanest and safest way in the world all over the house and barns, and plenty of quiet, smooth power for the pumping, churning, separating and many other farm tasks.

For having in their possession a scene not properly tagged a number of Lexington men were arrested and fined $15 at Lexington. It is one of the first moves upon the part of the game and fish warden, it is said, towards enforcing the laws in various parts of the state.

Definite Information Regarding Thousands Being Sought Throughout Country

The American Legion is carrying on the search for solutions to more than 2,000 individual death and disappearance mysteries among soldiers and sailors of the American Expeditionary Forces. These are cases where official action has run its course and terminated with the always brief and sometimes conflicting reports of "missing in action," "killed in battle," or "presumed to be dead." In each case it is claimed that definite or detailed information has not been received by the family of the soldier or sailor in question.

How many more than 2,000 such cases there may be is not known, but the American Legion Weekly has received that number of letters from the kin and friends of missing men. There are instances where it appears that men sailed for France and straightway disappeared from the face of the earth. No conclusive word has ever been received of their fate. There are cases by the score of men reported "wounded" or "slightly wounded" and no other word, until months later, perhaps. Cases are reported of men reported dead, then wounded, later missing, later "returned to duty." But the men have not come home. There are cases where men have been reported dead on a certain date, but members of their families received letter written by their soldier kin's own hand at a later date. There are cases where families have received unofficial report that their soldier kin were seen alive after the date of his official demise.

By far the largest class of letters, however, are those from gold-star mothers seeking word from a comrade who was with her son when he fell. The War Department—which, considering everything, has been remarkably accurate in accounting for casualties—has reported the date and place. Mother desires simply such details as will enable her to reconstruct in her mind—so many write—the scene in which her boy made the great sacrifice.

The "Roll Call" department of the American Legion Weekly, where these communications are published, is the most poignant personal column in the world. Every item carries its burden of human sorrow or breathes a hope that will not die. It is a column which, in bold brevity, sums up the heroism of the manhood of America and the trials of those who stayed behind and day by weary day carry on the search for those who did not come back. The greatest human interest stories in the world are told in scant paragraphs such as these:

94th AERO SQUADRON—Homer Key, box 116, Holdenville, Okla., would like to hear from someone who knew Lt. Raymond J. Saunders, and who could give details relative to his death in France and where he was buried, last seen in command of 12 enemy planes over Picquille, about 15 miles northwest of Verdun, Oct. 22, 1918.

Canady, 618 Park Road, Ambbridge, Pa. Will the nurse of doctor with Private Canady when he died also write?

23rd INF. CO. I.—Pvt. Floyd Holtz died July 29, 1918, after having been wounded at Vaux, July 1. Government bureaus can furnish no other information. His mother died last November while mourning for him. Details of his death are sought by sister, Mrs. Florence Tivis, 83 Bridgeport ave., Devon, Conn.

FARMERS GOING AT THE WORK OF PLOWING AGAIN

Farmers in the vicinity of Red House as well as other parts of the county are again busily engaged with the plow, according to reports, many trying to get as great an acreage plowed this summer and fall as possible. There will be a much greater acreage of wheat in Madison county next year there is no question, and the same can be said of oats, many rural residents expecting to divide their tobacco ground for this purpose. This ground, however, will not be available for some time, but the high prices for produce are stimulating the working of ground in an unprecedented manner.

Exalted Ruler Luther Powell and Messrs. Robert C. White and Bennett Farris have returned from Ashland, where they attended the State Elks' Association. They report a most enjoyable time.

Small Cars—and the Declining Cost of Tire Mileage

You are aware, of course, that during the last ten years, Goodyear has been able steadily to increase the amount of mileage built into its tires.

Do you realize, also, that this increase has been accomplished without extra cost to the user—that Goodyear Tires are priced no higher today than in 1910?

In no tire in the Goodyear line is the declining cost of mileage more evident than in the present 30 x 3-, 30 x 3½- and 31 x 4-inch size Goodyear Tires made especially for small cars.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Darr, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires—get the exceptional worth and endurance that Goodyear builds into them.

Get More Service for the Money in Goodyear Tires

Time after time the buyer of a tire sold at a sensationally low price is a big loser; true tire economy is a matter of low-cost mileage and not of tires made to sell at a few dollars each.

In Goodyear Tires, of the 30x3-, 30x3½, and 31x4-inch sizes, the user secures the high relative value always produced by the world's largest maker of automobile tires.

In these tires you have assurance of exceptional service for every dollar of original cost because Goodyear selected materials and Goodyear skill have been combined in their manufacture.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or any other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires—and save money.

IRVINE ROAD WORK

The work on the Irvine road which was being hustled along in an uninterrupted manner for some time has been checked by the frequent rains. However, it is expected to be started again in a short time, and completed soon. The extensiveness of this piece of roadway is greater than any realize, and the completion of the improvement will make this section of highway one of the most attractive in this part of the state.

KENTUCKIANS ARE MAKING GOOD IN WEST

Madison County Young Men Given Extra Pay and Recommendations From Kansas

Frank Shearer, who went to Kansas recently to work in the harvest fields, from near Richmond, writes that he and others from Madison county are doing well, making $7 per day and their board. Shearer reports the men are not worked hard, and their dining room menu is quite out of the ordinary, and workmen are receiving the best of treatment in every way.

"When one farmer gets thru with us," Shearer writes, "he just sends word on ahead, and the next fellow knows us by number, and knows what we are best adapted to and our reputation for work, and knows exactly where to place us. We are assured of steady work as long as we want it, and there is a chance here to make some money. The other boys are doing well. All are well and in good health. We expect to keep working west and follow to the north and wind up in Canada, where there is more of a demand for harvest hands than here, although we would not think of quitting and going there until the work is completed here. When we leave this country we will have at least recommendations from a dozen farmers, all big grain producers, since every one are given recommendations when we finish the work for each man. Many of the boys have started bank accounts and will have plenty of money of their own when they return home, if nothing happens. Each farmer has a 'medicine chest' not of liquor, but anything for a man when he is sick, ordinarily, and he is not docked if he becomes ill and has a half day or so."

Almost every man from Kentucky who has come here, has a number of recommendations. It is a fact that while many of the Indians are getting some complimentary papers, we are in the lead, and the boys are all working for records. They will hand you an extra dollar or two, and say, "keep the change, and come back again."

DEGARMO-ELSEY MEETINGS ATTRACT

The second night of the special evangelistic meeting being conducted by Evangelist J. B. DeGarmo and Singer Sam N. Elsey, at the Calvary Baptist church, saw the building filled almost to its capacity, several having driven over from Berea where the evangelist held a meeting some time ago. Arrangements are being made, however, for several more chairs which will increase the seating capacity quite a bit, but those desiring seats will find that they will have to take advantage of "come early to get a seat."

The Evangelist's theme last evening was: "The Love of God." After giving a Bible reading proving the inspiration of the Bible in the light of prophecy using Isa. 53, he said he was going to use as his text that passage of scripture which: (1) more people can repeat from memory than any other passage in the Bible; (2) which has more teaching than any other passage in the Bible; (3) more people rest upon its teachings in their dying hour, and (4) that passage of scripture which more people by not accepting shall spend eternity in hell—John 3:16.

The audience gave rapt attention throughout the entire service and in the closing moments when with tender tone the Evangelist declared: "I care not whether you came here as a harlot, a thief, or a thug, God loves you," tears stood in the eyes of many.

The subject for tonight will be "Sin, and its remedy;" for Thursday morning, "Conditions under which God hears us when we pray;" for Thursday evening, "Ye must be born again."

Singer Elsey organized his two choirs last evening and gave a cordial invitation to the singers of the city to take their places in them. He wants all the boys and girls in the junior choir.

Irvine Taylor, 14 year old son of Mrs. Dora Taylor, now living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zack Bowman, near Booneville, was accidentally shot and instantly killed by his 10 year old brother, Robert, at their home at Booneville.

MRS. LUCY DOUCETTE, of Manchester, N. H., who says she's just so happy over the way Tanlac restored her health she can't keep from telling people about it.

"I am just so happy over the way Tanlac has restored my health that I can't keep from telling people about it," said Mrs. Lucy Doucette, of 76 Stark street Manchester, New Hampshire, a few days ago. "I suffered so long with chronic indigestion that I didn't know what it was to sit down and enjoy a single meal. My stomach was so badly disordered I had to live on the strictest diet, and nothing seemed to agree with me. At times my breath seemed to be cut off, and I would suffer terribly for hours at a time."

"I lost my strength completely and became so weak and rundown I would give up several times during the day and would have to stop and rest. I was extremely nervous and irritable, and just felt like I would break down completely."

"One day I saw a statement from a friend of mine who said Tanlac had helped her wonderfully, so I was convinced that it was a dependable medicine and I began taking it immediately, and I am more than pleased at the results. My appetite improved right from the first, and the horrible indigestion from which I suffered so long has entirely disappeared."

"I have now finished my fourth bottle, and can eat just anything I wish without any bad after-effects. I also sleep better and have more strength and energy. It is a pleasure to tell others what Tanlac has done in my case."

Tanlac is sold in Richmond by Stockton and Son; in College Hill by Ginter Brothers; in Berea by Welch Department Stores. It

CLEAN WHEAT BEFORE SOWING

Unless wheat is thoroughly cleaned, it should not be sown, and there is always more or less dirt, weeds and cracked grain that come from the thresher and every year the losses to farmers are enormous because unclean wheat was sown in the fall. The cleaning mill which cleans wheat thoroughly is undoubtedly the farmer's friend.

City and County Institutions, As Well As Public, Await Coal Situation Change

Members of the Richmond city school board are not looking for coal at $16 per ton. They have not laid in the supply for the winter as yet, nor will they, it is asserted, at this price.

County school board members have been thinking of buying coal for some time, however, they assert almost to a man they will not "put up" any $15 per ton for it, and the supply for the winter has not been procured.

Bids for coal of certain grades for Eastern Normal School have not been acted upon, since the price was considered too high, and this is another institution awaiting the reduction in price before coal is bought for the winter's use.

"There will be a change in the coal situation, some way," said a well known business man in speaking of the situation, "and it surely will not be any worse, and there is much folding off until this change comes, whatever it may be."

Richmond dealers are figuring how they will meet the situation, should there come a decided reduction in the price of coal, since they are apparently unable to get the fuel in any great quantities, and they state that should a cold period develop, there would be an enormous demand for fuel, with little on hand, and only the normal facilities for delivering it. No intelligence has been received from state officials as yet regarding the situation.

That producers as well as retailers and wholesalers are working, or trying, to work out a solution to the situation, is very apparent. From one source, one claim is made, and from another, the version as to the situation is quite different, and in the meantime, there is as little coal purchased as possible, with winter creeping forward, and many taking a chance.

GRADING PAPERS IS WELL UNDER WAY

The work of grading the papers in the special school examination is well under way and it is expected the papers will be returned from Frankfort within short time and the result known. It is believed there will be a number of teachers added to the list as a result of the examination. There were special examinations held throughout the state and the full quota is looked for when the returns are made. There is a constantly increasing attendance at the schools of the county, showing the work of the attendance officer is very effective, and the general health of the schools is said to be unusually good. Extensive improvement work at the various buildings continues, sometimes extra buildings having to be secured to accommodate the children. However, the general situation is reported by members of the board as being exceptionally promising.
